Pertinent Citations

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Junemann illustrates a sewing machine including a frame and movable table for supporting a workpiece and swingable head. Monget et al. Illustrate a machine including a stand with uprights for supporting a material to be stitched. The head is movable up and down and the needle includes a thread, which is punched into the material for forming a matrix of stitching and providing reinforcement.
